Relationships Australia.
VICTORIA

Relationships Australia Victoria (RAV) has an established reputation for delivering quality training, with national and international expertise, and over 70 years' experience delivering services across a range of areas related to family relationships.

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO 21977), we provide quality higher education, vocational training and professional development in a range of areas relating to family dispute resolution, mediation and relationship counselling and education.

Become a qualified practitioner

RTO accredited courses

CHC81115 Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution

This VET Student Loan-approved course provides graduates with the skills to apply for registration as qualified family dispute resolution practitioners with the Attorney General's Department.

CHC81015 Graduate Diploma of Relationship Counselling (Responding to Family Violence)

For practitioners wishing to obtain an understanding of family violence in the context of various relationships. This course is also accredited with Family Safety Victoria and accredited and recognised with the Australian Counselling Association.

Both Graduate Diplomas include a fully arranged and supported placement program and are facilitated by leading clinicians, professionals and practitioners.

Other accredited training

Mediation Training Course: CHCSS00110 Mediation Skill Set and National Mediator Accreditation System

Become an accredited mediator in one short course. This course also provides an entry pathway into the CHC81115 Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution.

Customised training

- ✓ A tailored, needs-based approach to design and delivery for your workplace
- ✓ Research and evidence-informed programs
- ✓ Online, face-to-face and hybrid learning options
- ✓ Customised online modules and self-paced courses for you and your staff

As a leading training provider, our customised training is visionary in design and delivery.

We can tailor training to suit your individual workplace needs, working with you to design a program and learning outcomes.

We will also discuss with you the best form of facilitation to suit your workforce and workplace, whether that be face-to-face, an online workshop or a webinar.

Self-paced courses

We offer online, self-paced short courses enabling you to further your skills in your own time, from the comfort of your own workspace.

Clinical supervision

Our priority is ensuring we provide tailored solutions to accommodate your professional development needs.

We are pleased to offer tailored clinical supervision sessions for clinicians and practitioners working in a variety of fields in the community sector.

Supervision is facilitated by experienced and qualified clinical supervisors and family dispute resolution practitioners.
